

Finding Aid
The papers of former Vice President Mondale
Minnesota Historical Society
September 1, 2006

TOPIC: CHILDREN

Summary: As senator and vice president, Walter F. Mondale provided leadership on policies affecting children. He chaired the Senate Subcommittee on Children and Youth and pressed hard for legislation to protect children from abuse and neglect, improve children's health and nutrition, and to provide every child with an adequate education.

See: for policies related to education, see the Education finding aid.

For policies related to welfare and poverty, see the Welfare finding aid.
